Christ Church Cathedral invites all members of the Nashville community to experience God's blessings of art and beauty through outstanding performances in the Cathedral's sacred space.

Each year, our Sacred Space for the City Arts Series offers a broad array of programs and workshops featuring superb international, national, and local artists—all to celebrate and nurture God's gift of creativity.

Events are open to all and free to attend. Where indicated, a suggested donation may be made at the door.

Friends of the Cathedral make this extraordinary series possible! If you are moved by art in our sacred space and want to share this experience with others, please consider joining the Friends by making a contribution today at christcathedral.org.

Celebrate God's gift of creativity.
