ADULT FORMATION: BECOMING THE BELOVED COMMUNITY This morning “Becoming the Beloved Community: Faith, Race, and the Witness of Christ” continues at 10:00 AM in Lancaster Hall with speaker Anthony Hendricks. This adult formation series is a five-week journey through race, injustice, social action, and Biblical Unity. It attempts to answer: What’s going on? How did we get here? What should be done? What does God want me to do about race, injustice, social action, and Biblical Unity? We hope you’ll join us!

ADULT FORMATION: JOURNEY IN FAITH Also this morning, Rev. Canon Madeleine Rebouché is teaching the Journey in Faith adult class at 10:00 AM in the Wheeler Room. JIF is a ten-week exploration of the Episcopal tradition and our Anglican heritage and is held every winter for those interested in adult baptism, confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation. STORIES, HOPE, ACTION: AN IMMIGRATION FORUM Join us THIS Tuesday, March 3 for Stories, Hope, Action: An Immigration Forum, an evening dedicated to moving beyond empathy toward meaningful impact for our immigrant neighbors. Participating organizations include Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee Rights Coalition, Siloam Health, NOAH, Cosecha, and more! Light bites from Nativo Latin Food will be offered at 5:30 PM, and the forum will start at 6:00 PM. Please RSVP by scanning the QR code so we can have a headcount for food and childcare, but RSVP is not required to attend the event. Email Becca Ingle at bjingle@comcast.net if you have any questions!

CREATION CARE COMMITTEE COFFEE AND COMPOSTING UPDATES Today the Creation Care Committee is rolling out church-wide composting services and mugs for coffee time after the 8:45 and 11:15 AM services.
