TODAY: MOSES AND MORE Today at 10:00 AM, join our Dean and Rector Serena Sides for a Scripture class focused on the life and times of Moses. We will examine the work of God throughout Moses's story and look at New Testament teachings that depict Jesus as the inheritor of the Moses tradition. This adult formation class meets on Sundays, September 13 through October 11 in Lancaster Hall.

TODAY: TALK & TOUR IN THE NAVE Are you curious about the Episcopal Church and Christ Church Cathedral? Today is the first clergy-led Talk & Tour, which will be held once a month this year at 10:00 AM in the Nave. This is a drop-in opportunity for worshipers who are new to our community. We suggest worshipping with us at least once before attending, so you'll have context. Today's tour is led by Rev. Canon Madeleine Rebouché!

TODAY: WORKSHOP ON MARRIAGE RITES AND THE SEARCH FOR A NEW BISHOP After our morning worship, all are invited to join our guest the Rev. Kelli Joyce at 2:00 PM for a workshop reviewing current Episcopal church law ("canons") on equal access to marriage rites, non-discrimination in the ordination process and hiring, conscience protections, and more. This information, falling under the umbrella "Communion Across Difference," is good for you to know as the slate of nominees has been announced and we approach the election of our new bishop in the Diocese of Tennessee. Christ Church Cathedral and our clergy, like all Episcopal dioceses, parishes, and clergy, must follow the canons of the Episcopal Church, and significant changes were made in 2024 to these canons. Come find out more!
